SHERIDAN'S PROGRESS. On arriving at Taunton, yesterday morn ing, the train stopped at the Weir station, and the General was immediately welcomed to Tauntor in a neat address by Mayor Riviles and was introduced to the members in line. Here an interesting incident ocwho had lost two sons in the war, op-"God bless you General, I must shake hands with you," kissed his hand affectionately 29 chief will come into the councills. she shed lears profusely. The party were then put in carriages and conveyed through

The mutual greetings were very cordial.

At Staughton the party were met by Two members of Gov. Bullock's Staff, a committee of invitation from Portland, and others, and proceeded to the place of debarkation at Doteliester, where the decorations were profuse and the welcome enthusiastic. From this point, the General and his party were escorted to the Roxbury line of Boston, the avenues and streets being crowded with three platforms full of children and shook Ireland, and all were cheering.

The military escort comprised all the the whole was had by the General who stood in his carriage as they marched before him. The procession then marched through way, to his quarters at the Hevere House.

At the hotel a vast crowd was assembled and he was cheered vociferously. Hetween tive and six o'clock, Gov. Bullock paid him a forma' visit with his staff. Later, a party of civil and military gentlemen called upon him. A crowd of fifty thousand people gathered in front of the hotel. A torch-light procession of the Grand Army of the Republic added to the crowd, to whom, in rescoped to music and repeated calls. Gen Sheridan made a short address.

The Efforts to Bepreclate our Hond Abroad.

The tenor of all official information from Harope, is to the effect that the present spacehes on themees are being used by speculators and parties hostile to the United States with the greatest industry, and with considerable effect in depreciating our na tional credit; that United States bonds have tallen very considerably mainly through these influences within the last few weeks, and that Router's telegram has manifested the most absertly in disseminating reports concerning our finances bearing the worst construction, and even an absurd minor has foundits way into Europe, and gained considerable credence that the November interest due on our bonds is to be paid by the Secretary of the Treasury in greenbacks instead of gold. The Providence Journal says, the Boston Transcript makes a call upon our estimable friend Judge Albert G. Greene, which will receive unmimous endorsement hereabouts " Old Grimes, according to the New York Evening Mail, is soon to make his appearnce, described by his poetic bistorian, and defured in fourteen designs by Hoppin, We wish his advent could be taken as a proof that he is the pioneer of a speedy parade in public of the Militia Muster. The commander of the Falstaflian regiment is now residing in Cleveland, and beyond the oral reach of Providence, but not, we hope, beyond the reach of somebody who will soon induce him to send to the printer that rate cpic of Yankee lumor."

About five years ago a man from the counby drove into Cleveland, Oldo, and purchased a quantity of goods in a store. In sayment he gave $5 in pennics, contained in a bag. The bag suddenly disappeared, and no trace of it could be found. On Wednesday afternoon the same man hitched is horse in front of the same establishment and, after transacting his husiness, his surprise may be imagined, on returning, to Merosene Oil and Lamp and the identical bag containing the pennies lying in his buggy. He had been unwittingly the thief and the money had lain there
